ELIS SEIS Chapter 5 Rewrite 10-9-15.docx

As discussed at the briefing for Curt and after, I took a first crack at revising Chapter 5 of our draft SEIS to better reflect our current thinking about our preferred alternative and the other two alternatives. I'm passing this now to Mark for him to wordsmith as much as he can next week. Jeannie wants us to be done by COB on October 16, but depending on how much time you need, Mark, and how much more internal review we need, we may need to push back on Jeannie. I'm in Maine all day at a conference on Tuesday but back in Wednesday to discuss. I hope you can give this your quick attention. Thanks.
